MISSOULA--

The Western Montana Epilepsy Association (WMEA) will hold its fall meeting at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 17, at the home of Mrs. Leo G. Wulfekuhle, 3304 S. 7th St. W.

Michael M. McCarthy, a fifth-year student at the University of Montana in Missoula, who is WMEA president, said members of the group will discuss methods of educating western Montana residents on the effects of epilepsy, and ways of raising funds for the purchase of printed epilepsy material for distribution to the public.

The meeting Oct. 17 is open to epileptics, their parents and teachers from western Montana.
